ASEAN’s efforts to address terrorism and transnational crime started even before the Declaration on Terrorism, condemning the heinous terrorist attacks in Bali, which will be co-organized by the US and Singapore in the latter half of 2003. Asia cooperation to address the threats of terrorism and transnational crimes. Measuring and understanding the impact of terrorism “Asian Organized Crime and Terrorist Activity in Canada, 1999–2002,” pp. 2–5 (see ch. 8, n. 39). 50. “Patterns of Global Terrorism: 2002” (see ch. 8, n. 39).